

The height of a Mansard roof Orangery is determined by the position of the first post and tie beam.
 As post span A becomes greater, height B will increase by corresponding amounts.

Along with in most cases avoiding first floor windows, 870mm is the ideal A spacing as the roof proportionally looks right and the glazing bars look most aesthetically pleasing.

